

Benefits and Services of NDAA

America's School for Prosecutors

National Advocacy Center: Training available to prosecutors due to the commitment and strength of our membership.

National College of District Attorneys: Take advantage of training and networking opportunities in specialized criminal justice topics.

American Prosecutors Research Institute: Research, Development and Technical Assistance for Prosecutors

APRI serves NDAA and its members in their day-to-day job responsibilities with funding obtained through the Department of Justice and other agencies.

Resources

Access the members-only portion of our Web site to tap into the numerous resources that NDAA provides to prosecutors, the National Center for Prosecution Ethics and the Expert Witness and Brief Bank System to name a few.

Legislation

Be involved in the lobbying efforts on issues affecting prosecutors, especially student loan forgiveness. Meet the leaders making those policies.

Conferences

Networking opportunities at their best; form relationships with your peers that carry over through the years.

CLE Accreditation

Apply to receive continuing legal education (CLE) credits.

Publications

Receive six issues of The Prosecutor magazine, featuring articles and products of interest to prosecutors.

You will be notified and receive discounts for professional publications.

The Prosecutors' Memorial

Pay homage to prosecutors who have given the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty. Your association with NDAA supports the preservation of the memorial and honors your fallen colleagues.

For additional information and to download an application, please visit our Web site www.ndaa.org or contact the membership department at 703.549.9222.
